

The Louisville Journal of a late date says of the new call by the President for men, and the circular of the Secretary of the Treasury for money:

"What a magnificent spectacle it would be to see the President's last call for five hundred thousand men responded to voluntarily and without the intervention of a draft, and Secretary Fessenden's call for three hundred million dollars promptly met with the same cheerful alacrity. It can be done if the people so will it."

A "magnificent spectacle," truly; and if the Journal will not take offense, we will briefly tell it just exactly why this spectacle does not gladden the sight of every true lover of his country. It is because such journals as the Journal have been devoting all their energies week in and week out, to bring every act of the National Administration into disrepute with the people. It is because such papers have labored incessantly night and day to convince the people that the war is being prosecuted for objects wholly unconstitutional and subversive of our dearest rights, and that our national debt is already so enormously large that it never can be paid. And so on to the end of the villainously lying chapter. If one hundredth part of what the Journal has said in reference to Mr. Lincoln's objects and the measures of the Union party, were true, the people would be justified in resisting the draft and in letting Mr. Fessenden whistle for his money. And it is because the Journal and other copperhead sheets have lied so outrageously that there is the holding back of men and money which is now witnessed in some portions of the country. It is simply the infamous conduct of yourself and such as you, Mr. Journal, that keeps us from witnessing the "magnificent spectacle" that you write so smoothly about.

The Journal will pardon us, but we must allude to another "spectacle" not particularly "magnificent."

When this secession delirium broke out in the South and the State of Kentucky was halting between two opinions, the Journal in its sane moments manifested some little preference for the old flag; whereupon it was given out all over the North that the Journal was about to be discontinued in consequence of the withdrawal of all its Southern patronage as a punishment for its loyalty and Unionism! Immense lists of subscribers were immediately procured for it in all the free states, and contributions were generously collected until it was placed on a sound financial basis. The Government also lent it a helping hand, and in this way, to use the chaste and elegant language of another, the Journal was "tailed up" until it could go alone. The next "magnificent spectacle" which the country witnessed, was the transformation of the Journal into a bitter and malignant copperhead sheet! The Journal Editor must remember the fable of the woodman who found a viper one cold day so thoroughly chilled and frozen that it was next to dead and he was so touched with pity that he carried it home and laid it comfortably upon his own hearth. As soon as it had acquired sufficient vitality, it repaid the poor man's kindness by fastening its poisonous fangs upon the tender flesh of one of his babes. The Journal can make the application.

Renomination of Hon. I. C. Sloan.

The renomination of Hon. I. C. Sloan for Congress yesterday at Watertown, was a consummation most devoutly wished for by the Union loving part of his constituency, and will be heartily endorsed by them at the polls in November. During the time Mr. S. has represented this district in Congress, although called to the position at a time of extreme national peril and alarm, he has on all occasions cordially seconded every effort of the Government to vindicate the supremacy of the laws, and preserve the integrity of the country. While the Administration of Abraham Lincoln has found in him a firm and steadfast friend, the wants and wishes of the large and intelligent district which he has had the honor to represent, have been carefully watched and guarded. His renomination at this time is not only a high compliment to a high minded and honorable gentleman, but is an emphatic endorsement of his official career thus far in Congress. We are quite sanguine that the people of the second Congressional district will never have occasion to repent their choice in thus honoring one of our fellow citizens, but feel certain that the untired future will add its testimony to the wisdom of their choice.

Who will be placed in nomination by the copperhead faction of the district, in opposition to Mr. Sloan, is not now known, nor is it of much consequence. No doubt any one, in good and regular standing in the "democratic" church, who thirsts for the empty honors of a nomination, can have it for the asking. We have heard the names of George B. Smith, and "Divinity" Sanborn, of Dane, and Emil Roche, of Watertown, mentioned as probable candidates. Either of them would be excellent men to beat.

The Wade Davis Manifesto is receiving, as it deserves, the unqualified condemnation of the Union press throughout the country, and the equally unqualified approval, as it is entitled to, of the Copperhead press.

The Boston papers have made another advance in their prices. None of the weeklies are now less than $2, many of them are $3, and some are $4, per annum.

STATE NEWS.

The Elkhorn Independent boasts of a tobacco leaf brought to that office which measured three feet four and one-half inches in length, and was nineteen inches in width. Can any one beat that?—The Beloit Journal says Dr. Taggart "leads off" in furnishing a representative recruit from this city. We hear of one or two others who intend to do likewise.—The Brodhead Independent says no rain has fallen in that locality for six weeks, and it is excessively dry. Corn, potatoes and pasturage have suffered very much.—Peaches have made their appearance in Milwaukee at one cent apiece.—The Columbus Journal notices several burglaries in that village lately.—The Fond du Lac Press says a young child was found partly buried, on the bank of the river there lately. It was evidently only about a day old, and had its skull broken in. It was locked up in an old carpet bag, and had probably been killed the night before by some unnatural mother who took this means to hide her shame. No clue to the criminal has yet been found.—The Jackson County Banner says the war meetings in Black River Falls will probably result in raising men and money. An effort is making to get up a company there. Considerable sickness has prevailed among children.—The Prairie du Chien Union says the new Railroad Hotel and Passenger House there is nearly completed, and will be a very fine building. Two companies for Col. Cobb's 43d Regiment are raising at Prairie du Chien.—The Watertown Register describes the sale of a farm of 880 acres, about seven miles east of that place, belonging of Mansford Lockwood of Connecticut. The business was managed by Judge Guild, of Newark, N. J., who advertised the sale extensively through the papers, carried all who wished to attend free of charge, and provided them with all they wanted to eat and drink. The bidding was lively, and the farm sold in small lots for $20,920; a good price, considering the times, the failure of crops, &c.—A re-enrollment of Milwaukee is to be applied for on account of the many errors discovered, and ex-Governor Salomon has gone to Washington to urge the matter.—The Elkhorn Independent says the citizens of all the towns in the county are exerting themselves to their utmost to fill the quotas of their respective towns with volunteers, and thus free themselves from the draft. They are meeting with good success. Elkhorn has filled its quota.

The New York Herald is a dirty and infamous sheet, but possesses tact and shrewdness. It wants General McClellan elected President, but it has sense enough to understand that his prospect cannot be promoted by assailing General Grant. The Copperhead World having proclaimed Grant the last and worst of military failures, the Herald says:

"Gen. Grant's achievements are great and tangible. His victories are counted by the half dozen, and when the people run over in their minds the lists of our great battles they name six of the victories of this illustrious soldier where they name one achieved by any other. Gen. Grant is the man who has planted the Stars and Stripes on all that part of the rebel territory that we now occupy. Those politicians out their own throats who try to ignore, understate or sneer down a man who has fought more battles and won more victories than any other general in the army, and who has won his way from a colony of militia to the Lieutenant Generalship of the United States."

AN IMPORTANT DOCUMENT.—We are indebted to Secretary Fairchild for a copy of a pamphlet of 180 pages, containing the election and registry laws of Wisconsin, with pertinent extracts from the Constitution and forms and instructions for the use of clerks, inspectors, &c., with a copy of a form of Register of Wisconsin Electors. These forms and instructions have been prepared with great care, much valuable assistance having been derived from the limits and experience of officers in the State of New York, where a similar law has been in force for some years.

Regarding the choice of the people for Congressmen in this district, the Beloit Journal says:

"We believe the sentiments of people in this vicinity are decidedly in favor of the renomination of Mr. Sloan. His course has commanded general approbation, and we believe that those who have given much thought to the subject are satisfied that an 'rotation' theories ought very frequently to be whirled out of his place a Congressman who has given proof of his ability and fidelity."

LT. COL. HARRY EASTMAN, of the 2d Wisconsin cavalry was found guilty upon several charges of dishonest and disrespectful conduct, and dismissed from the service in disgrace.

The Chicago Tribune says there is more than double the amount of wheat and corn in store in that city than there was a year ago.

SEVEN WEEKLY newspapers in New York State have given up the ghost in seven weeks, in consequence of the high prices of paper, &c.

JOHN TURNER, Esq., Editor of the Madison Star, declines to be a candidate for State Senator from that district. John, you are too modest by half.

Forrest's Attack upon Memphis.

Young Burnham, now at Memphis with the 40th Regiment, writes home to his father in this city as follows, with reference to Forrest's attack last Sunday.

CAMP RAY, NEAR MEMPHIS, AUG. 22d.—I suppose you will have heard of the attack on Memphis yesterday morning by Forrest's forces, long before this reaches you, but I will write and let you know that all the company are all right. We had two men in the regiment wounded.

About 3 o'clock a. m. the rebels rushed down what is called the Hernando road in force estimated from 600 to 4000. They were mounted and had also two pieces of artillery. They fired upon the pickets of the 30th Wis. and killed three of them. They then made for the city, the first camp on the road was that of the 187th Ill (100 day men), which they fired into and killed a good many. They made for General Washburn's headquarters, and he had a very narrow escape; jumping out of a back window and running to the river he got into a boat which took him to Fort Pickering.

They did not do a great deal of damage in the city as I have heard. This all happened before we were awake, we being on the opposite side of the city. The first we heard was by citizens and soldiers who came into camp and said that the rebels were in Memphis.

We were soon in line of battle and stood some time in our own camp Colonel Faltows being in command. We soon started for the scene of action, we met many in the city who told us that the "fun" was all over, but we could hear the cannon very plain in the woods about a mile ahead of us. When we got within about half a mile of the woods we began to see the wounded coming back and the dead lying along the road. We kept on, the boys all being very cool. We passed about one-fourth of a mile in advance of the artillery, then left the road and fled into a cotton field. Then the bullets began to sing, (I don't remember the tune). We then went into a ravine and company A was sent out as skirmishers. The regiment lay down and our company advanced in a skirmish line. The bullets flew thick and fast for a while. The artillery soon opened and the shells began their music. We lay between our own guns and the rebels. The rebels were trying to get our range, and our own batteries thought we were rebels and threw three shells at us before they found out who we were.

The rebels soon began to retreat and we followed some distance, then halted and came back, the cavalry following.

COMMON COUNCIL.—There was a meeting of the Common Council last evening, at which but little business of importance was transacted. There is an adjourned meeting to-morrow evening.

'MEMBER IN THE FIRST DEGREE.'—Such was the verdict of the acting secretary of the County Convention, when he saw the manner in which our compositors got his very complete report of the doings of that body mixed, in the Gazette last evening. He would learn to keep his lines on under such circumstances, if he should edit a newspaper a few years.

TO TAXPAYERS.—We called on the City Treasurer yesterday, and were admonished that the tenth day of September was rapidly approaching, and that if we do not wish to see the words "Penalty and costs" on our city tax receipts, we had better "shell out." Those of readers who are "in the boat," will undoubtedly "arrange" in time, as taxes are heavy enough without any addition of penalty or costs thereon.

MEETING OF THE ENROLLED MEN OF THE FIRST WARD.—At a meeting of the enrolled men of the 1st Ward at the office of John Winans, Esq., J. Winans was called to the Chair and A. E. Burpee elected Secretary.

On motion the following resolve was adopted:

Resolved, That the Finance Committee be and they are hereby instructed to make and publish a report as soon as may be after the expiration of the present week, of all moneys received and paid out by them. Also the names of all enrolled men in the 1st Ward who have been called upon to contribute to the fund of said Ward and who refused, together with the facts connected therewith.

Meeting adjourned to Saturday evening at the same place. A. E. BERPEE.

OUR FIRE DEPARTMENT AT FOND DU LAC.—Our boys have returned from the firemen's tournament at Fond du Lac and as they marched through the streets, carried at their head the beautiful prize banner which they won in the contest for throwing the largest quantity of water in a specified length of time, they having beaten a Madison engine 2 1/2 inches. The banner is an elegant one, made of silk, and cost $100 in Chicago.

The prize trumpet was contested for by the hose companies present, of which there were four. Hose company No. 3 of Fond du Lac came in two seconds ahead of the company from this city, but it is alleged that contrary to the rules prescribed for the occasion, three of the fatigued men of the Fond du Lac company dropped off the ropes and as many fresh ones took hold when a portion of the distance had been run. The prize trumpet is therefore in controversy, and the matter has been referred to the appropriate officers of the Association for decision.

The boys did nobly, and have reason to be proud of their achievement.

SOMETHING NEW.—Prof Willard the celebrated Chiropractor, who cures corns, bunions, disengaged and in growing nails, is in our city. From what we hear, his operations are of a very scientific character. He performs a cure in from one to five minutes without inducing pain, blood, or resorting to the use of cutting instruments, forceps or chemicals, plasters, bandages or medicines of any kind. He comes recommended by eminent medical men and has submitted his system to several of our own physicians who are highly pleased with it. Dr. Corryell says: "I have been operated upon by Prof. Willard for a very troublesome in-growing nail and am perfectly satisfied that his operations are efficient and scientific in every particular. The operation was without pain or blood and gave immediate relief." His room is No. 32, Myers House, August 17th.

MARRIED.

In this city, on the 24th inst., by Rev. G. W. Lawrence, Mr. DAVID L. MINKER, of Onondaga, and MISS CHARLES R. STANLEY, of Onondaga.

Also, on the 25th inst., by the same, MR. TRA A. CLARK, and MISS FRANCES A. DAVIS, both of Onondaga.

DIED.

In the Hospital at St. Charles, Arkansas, August 13th, 1864, of Cholera Diarrhoea, RICHARD B. STEWART, of Co. B, 2d Regt. Wis. Infantry, aged 45 years, formerly of Janesville, Wis.

THE WAR FOR THE UNION!

From Gen Grant's Army

WARREN CANNOT BE DISLOGGED.

Weldon Railroad Destroyed.

The National Union Com. in Session

REBS. DEPLORE LOSS OF R. R.'S.

A BATCH OF REBEL LIES.

38000 Union Prisoners in Ga.

Exchange of Prisoners Promised.

FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

New York, August 25.—The Commercial's Washington special says intelligence from Gen. Warren's corps represent that our cavalry are rapidly destroying the rails and bridges between Petersburg and Weldon. Gen. Warren is so strongly entrenched that he cannot be dislodged, and is making demonstrations on the Petersburg and Lynchburg road.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, August 24.—Col. Tilden, who was missing after the action of Friday, is safe. He was taken prisoner, and with others was conveyed to Petersburg, but during the excitement of loading them into the cars he managed to evade the vigilance of the guard, and ran into some bushes where he lay concealed till chance gave him an opportunity to get away, and he came into our lines on Monday unharmed.

LATER, August 25.—Col. Warren advanced his line a mile along the Railroad towards Petersburg yesterday, the rebel pickets falling back before his skirmishers. The first division of the 2d corps were engaged all day yesterday in tearing and burning the Railroad as far as Ream Station, and beyond a distance of 3 miles. That portion which the 5th corps advanced over was completely destroyed.

All quiet on the line this morning, with the exception of the usual picket firing. New York, August 25.—Our troops have made a most thorough destruction of the Weldon Railroad. It is not supposed, however, that our forces will evacuate the line of that Railroad, but will remain there for the present.

New York, August 25.—A special to the Commercial, dated Washington 25th, says the feeling here with regard to the late move of the army of the Potomac, and the contemplation, is full of hope and confidence. It is certain that the campaign against Richmond is not yet ended; if indeed, it has more than just begun. If Lee's disposition of his forces has been based on such an idea, he may find out his error when it is too late.

New York, August 25.—Persons of known secession proclivities here claim that contrary to the opinion generally expressed by the northern press, the movement of a portion of Grant's forces on the North side of James river was not a feint, but a bona fide attack on Richmond from the East, and that the attack on the Weldon Railroad was only a feint to draw off the attention of Lee from other movements. This supposition it is claimed, however, is not supported by the facts. The movement on the line of the Weldon Railroad, however, is reported by secessionists to feel very sore about, recent heavy losses in his corps. He having understood that he was to be supported by at least one more corps.

The entire loss in the 5th corps on Sunday is now stated at 5000. They fought splendidly.

FROM THE SOUTH.

Baltimore, August 25.—The American has Richmond papers of the 19th inst. They claim to have captured 2,700 prisoners in the assault they made on our forces at the Weldon R. R. on Friday, but seem to deplore the loss of the road very much. The only items of news from Mobile are the following under date of the 17th inst: A force of the enemy from Pensacola estimated at 2,000 crossed the Perdido river yesterday advancing towards Mobile Bay. A heavy Yankee force is in North Mississippi, whose destination is supposed to be Mobile.

The Richmond Examiner of the 22d contains the following dispatches:

CHARLESTON, August 20.—Capt. Nicholson with a greatly inferior force engaged the enemy's cavalry and artillery at Gainesville, Fla., on the 10th, and completely routed them capturing 150 prisoners, one piece of artillery and 50 stolen negroes. The enemy was pursued 14 miles and scattered.

The Examiner also says Gen. Richard Page, commanding Fort Morgan is a Virginian. The number of prisoners of war now at Andersonville, Ga., is 38,000. The bad policy of concentrating such an army of prisoners in one spot, must be apparent to the authorities. The Yankee government never commit that blunder.

The powder works located at Charlotte, Ga., were blown up some days ago, killing 3 men and wounding several.

The Examiner of the 19th has the following dispatch, dated Mobile, August 17th: Maj. Gen. L. Gardner assumes command of the Gulf District to-day. The people are pleased with him. Yesterday evening the enemy landed at Montrose in five launches. Our cavalry fired on them wounding several. Hopes are entertained of an early exchange of the prisoners at Dauphin.

New York, August 25.—Richmond papers of the 23d, contain accounts of the rebel assault on Warren's line on the Weldon Road, "say we have met with a repulse costing us many a brave man, but the affair is not over. Brig. Gen. Saunders of Alabama, was killed, Gen. Lamar of Florida, mortally wounded, Gens. Barton, Ginnagan and Anderson of Alabama, wounded.

Grant's plans on the Danville Road are now revealed, and all the energy and gallantry of the armies under Lee and Beauregard will not be too much to beat back this bold movement to the south of Petersburg.

According to Petersburg papers, the Petersburg & Lynchburg railroad is considered in danger.

FROM THE GULF.

New York, August 26.—The Herald has the following dated Fort Monroe 24: The latest intelligence from Mobile reached us last night by the U. S. gunboat Connecticut, which left there on the 12th inst. at sunset. At that time the situation was unchanged. The iron clads and Fort Morgan were engaged but not very severely. Farragut on his flag ship was inside Mobile Bay. The wooden ships were repairing damages. Fort Morgan is very closely invested by navy and military forces.

Gen. Canby was with Farragut on the 11th, in close consultation. Everybody seems anxious for the final blow to be struck. Great activity prevails among the fleet, and the health and spirits of the men is first rate.

FROM THE UPPER POTOMAC.

New York, August 25.—The Post's Washington special says: advice received here to-day state that there was a little skirmish going on at the front on Wednesday, but without any important result. The rebels were evidently trying to get across the Potomac again, but our cavalry are close on them.

New York, August 25.—The Post's Washington special says a large number of citizens have been brought in charged with being guerrillas.

Baltimore, August 25.—The American has received the following to-night: HAVEN'S FERRY, August 25.—A reconnaissance was made this morning by a large force of cavalry under command of Gen. Torbert, which resulted in obtaining very important information.

From information received it appears that a considerable portion of the enemy's force broke camp at Charlestown this morning at day light and marched in the direction of Loetown. Our cavalry attacked their line of skirmishers, and after a brilliant charge succeeded in capturing quite a number of prisoners.

During the skirmish we lost a few killed and wounded, all of whom were brought off the field.

New York, August 25.—The World's Washington special dated the 25th, says that rumors are afloat in reference to impending movements of the rebel forces in Northern Virginia. It is said that a large rebel column is moving down east of Blue Ridge, and early if he crosses the Potomac at all, will cross near Edward's Ferry, and certainly some place below Point of Rocks, and make a dash on this city.

From means of transportation which are said to be in readiness for bringing troops hither, I infer that the Government can easily thwart any attempt of the rebels to move against Washington.

New York, August 25.—The Tribune has the following special from Harper's Ferry, dated the 25: British cavalry was heard to-day from 11 till 1 o'clock, on our extreme right. It has since been ascertained that our forces met and engaged the enemy near Kearneyville. The result is not yet known.

At 4:30 firing opened on the right, and at this hour, 5 o'clock, continues briskly. All has been quiet along our front during the day.

A special to the Times, dated Washington 25th, says the right of Sheridan's line, held by Wilson's cavalry division, was this morning advanced and met the enemy in a severe engagement which continued up to the time of the departure of the train from Harper's Ferry. The attack was made in consequence of a movement on the part of the enemy, showing designs of crossing the Potomac by a turning movement on the right wing of Sheridan's position.

Latest advices says the action still continues.

FROM WASHINGTON.

New York, August 25.—The Commercial's Washington special says the executive committee of the National Union committee are in session in that city.

The same correspondent says he has the best reasons for denying the publication of reports that the Administration entertained an idea of appointing peace commissioners to Richmond, and of tendering of an armistice.

He also says while the Weldon road is totally lost to the rebels, another movement is already on foot which will cause them quite as much grief.

The Post's Washington special says it is all quiet along the Potomac, and the reports of the rebels crossing are humbug.

WASHINGTON, August 25.—Negro soldiers are to be paid the same wages, bounty and clothing allowance as the white soldiers in accordance with the last decision of the Attorney General.

There is no ground for the rumor assiduously reported from here that the President proposes to send peace commissioners to the rebels. The rumor that such a policy has been or is to be proposed is equally without foundation.

LETTER FROM FREMONT.

Boston, August 26.—Several prominent abolitionists, including Elijah Wright and S. C. Howe, have written Gen. Fremont, speaking of the dissatisfaction in the republican ranks, and advising that the Baltimore and Cleveland nominees both withdraw their names as presidential candidates, and a new convention be called to select candidates.

Fremont replies at length, remarking that he does not feel at liberty to withdraw his name without first consulting the party who nominated him, but suggests that direct efforts be made to obtain an immediate understanding between the supporters of both nominees in order that they may unite upon such a convention.

This letter Fremont says much has been said about peace. For me, peace signifies the integral establishment of the Union without slavery, which is the source of all our political dissensions, and because this constitution itself is condemned by the entrenched and liberal spirit of the age. These are to be the essential conditions of peace.

FROM SHERMAN'S DEPARTMENT.

New York, August 26.—The Herald's special, Nashville 24th, says active operations in this department await an anticipated results elsewhere.

The Chattanooga Gazette of the 23d, reports the rebel Gen. Wheeler at Savannah Landing on the 20th inst., where he was attacked, captured and nearly 300 white laborers harnessed in a camp and 44 wagons, killed 1 white soldier and 1 white citizen.

Gen. Sammon who left Atlanta on the 22d, reports Gen. Dodge still alive but dangerously wounded. The army is inactive.

FROM HAVANA.

New York, August 25.—The steamer Liberty from Havana on the 20th arrived. Importation of Cuban Chinese into Cuba has been granted. A meeting was held in Havana to petition a crown for the repression of political dissensions, and because the constitution itself is condemned by the entrenched and liberal spirit of the age. These are to

I have noticed that all men speak of all men's virtues when they are dead; and that tombstones are marked with epitaphs of "good and virtuous." Is there any particular cemetery where the dead men are buried?

The New York Tribune expresses the opinion that not one-third of the journals of that city are paying current expenses, and adds: "It is notoriously true that the capital invested here in newspapers, is paying no profit whatever."

STOMACH BITTERS.

STOMACH BITTERS.

STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors of the justly esteemed and well-known brand of Stomach Bitters, do not deem it necessary, in order to give their goods a fictitious, or even an enhanced value, to take a fling at all other Bitters, and proclaim in small capitals that they are worthless. Our Bitters do not need this, as we place them before the public on their merits, and invite your careful attention to the goods we allow our brand upon, knowing as we do so, that our reputation is at stake. The name, "Red Jacket," is taken from the original compound by the native chieftain of the forest, and with the addition of a few herbs by Dr. Chapin, made more agreeable to the taste, they have now a peculiarly healthy, soothing and recuperative influence, especially for the patient suffering from the loss of appetite, loss of sleep, indigestion, and all diseases arising from Torpid Liver or Indigestion. They strengthen and invigorate the system. They are unequalled for general debility. They are a sure cure for Dyspepsia. They are a sure preventive of Fever and Ague. They relieve constipation. They cure Nervous Headache. They are a sure cure for Biliousness. They make the debilitated chronic, and restore to strength the exhausted. Aged persons and delicate females will find that they can save large doctor's bills by the use of these Bitters.
